

Billings City Administrator Weekly Report

January 13, 2022

- 1. Tonight's Public Safety Forum – An In-Depth look into Public Safety, January 13, 2022, 6:30 PM to 8:30 PM at the Billings Public Library. There will be an opportunity to ask questions to the group of panelists including Brian Gootkin, MT DOC Director; Rep. Barry Usher, Chair of the Judiciary Committee; Scott Twito, Yellowstone County Attorney; Mike Linder, Yellowstone County Sheriff; Rich St. John, Billings Police Chief; and Stacy Zinn-Brittain, DEA Agent.
- 2. Tree Removals on Montana Avenue - The Forestry Division began work on removing 10 Canadian Red Cheery trees on Montana Ave. These trees were installed in the planters along Montana Avenue back in 1998. These trees have outgrown the planters and are root-bound. This is causing them to be more vulnerable to frost cracks and disease. Most of the trees have begun to lean and are becoming a hazard. Forestry began a five (5) year program to remove and replace these trees and is now in the third year of that program. The replacement trees are better adapted to the environment and multiple varieties are being installed so a single disease or issue won't force mass removal again. The new varieties will be planted during spring planting season 2022.
- 3. Public Information Officer - Victoria Hill will begin as the City's first public information officer on February 28th. Please give her a big welcome as she shifts from anchoring Q2's morning show to the city. We are very excited!
