

Billings City Administrator Weekly Report

January 9, 2026

- 1. Utility Payment Update – Utility service disconnects begin Monday, January 12, at 8 a.m. From the update, you can see that we are down to 239 accounts that meet the criteria for this Monday's turnoff. Staff have been working with customers to catch up on their balances or to enter into a payment plan. We have also had staff working to locate curb valves for the delinquent accounts to ensure they are ready for turnoff on Monday and that has resulted in people reaching out to pay their bill. Customer service staff will arrive several hours early on Monday to ensure every payment is recorded so we do not turn off accounts that have made payments. At 8 a.m., four crews will start doing turnoffs. As payments are received from properties that have been turned off, we will reassign some of the crews to do turn-ons. Our priority will be to get water back on after payment versus finishing the turnoff list on Monday. As such, some properties may get turned off on Tuesday instead of Monday. We have both office and field crews scheduled to work late on Monday to ensure any customer who wants to pay or set up a plan has a chance to do so. We appreciate the support from the City Council regarding this step in the process. The customer service and meter staff will have difficult weeks over the next month, and your support helps them to do their jobs. Please find the update for January 9, 2026, attached.
- 2. Council Orientation – Monday's orientation session will focus on Finance and MET Transit; 8-10 AM at MET Transit, 1705 Monad Road. The purpose of the orientation meeting is to provide newly elected councilmembers with an overview of city operations, including familiarity with city facilities and locations, and to introduce the functions, responsibilities, and organization of city departments. No formal action will be taken.
- 3. MET News - Billings MET Transit is excited to announce that the transit system exceeded 600k total riders in calendar year 2025! The fixed-route bus system provided 568,188 rides while the paratransit system provided 40,880, for a grand total of 609,068.

MET has continued to see significant ridership growth since a bus route system overhaul was implemented in October of 2023. This overhaul consisted of a complete bus route redesign, schedule update with consistent travel times, additional hours of service, and the creation of designated bus stops. Year-over-year growth for the transit system is as follows:

2022 = 351,748 total rides
2023 = 375,391 total rides (6.72% increase)
2024 = 522,033 total rides (39.06% increase)
2025 = 609,068 total rides (16.67% increase)

Throughout 2025, MET continued to provide rider improvements with updates to digital fare options, onboard technology upgrades, and the introduction of four new electric powered buses.

Share your thoughts—21st St. Underpass and Safe Routes to School!

The Billings Metropolitan Planning Organization (MPO) and the City of Billings currently has two surveys available and is asking for the public's help and input.

21st St. Underpass Study Survey

The first survey, which opened in December, is for the Billings Metropolitan Planning Organization's 21st St. Underpass Study. The 21st Street underpass is one of two grade-separated railroad under crossings that link downtown Billings to the industrial and residential areas south of the railroad. The 21st Street crossing is unique because it is the only grade-separated crossing that serves the central downtown area — making it one of the critical railroad crossings in Billings. However, there are significant limitations to the current use of the 21st Street underpass including a lack of clearance for large vehicles.

The first round of public outreach, which was available in June 2025, asked respondents about their use of the underpass and their concern with the underpass. Based on technical analysis and public input, the project team developed four planning level alternatives for the underpass. The second round of public outreach, the one that is now available, describes four alternatives for the underpass and asks for feedback on each alternative. The alternatives include:

- No Build (i.e., no change from the current underpass)
- Minor Improvements with Over height Vehicle Warning System
- Increasing the Clearance to 11.5' with Roadway Modifications
- Increase Clearance to 13.5' with Bridge Replacement

The survey will be open through January 18, 2026. The results will help inform the final

Safe Routes to School Education Campaign Survey

The City of Billings has a survey that will inform a subject close to many residents' hearts - Safe Routes to School. The City of Billings has funding from a federal grant to develop and execute a Safe Routes to School education campaign that seeks to educate community members on safe travel behaviors and encourage more students to walk, bike, and roll to school. This campaign is different than previous Safe Routes to School plans which focused on identifying infrastructure improvements such as enhanced crosswalks and missing sidewalks. The City is currently implementing Safe Routes to School infrastructure improvements around Billings, but this campaign focused on behavioral change is meant to supplement the on-the-ground improvements. The campaign will focus on behavioral changes to make it safer for students to get to school, with a focus on elementary schools.

The City is looking for feedback from parents/guardians, school staff, students, and general community members on what safety issues they feel are the most important to address in the campaign and how to address them. The campaign is planned to last for a couple of years and could consist of television ads, social media posts, and more, depending on the feedback from the community.

Because everyone brings an important and different perspective to this complex issue, the project team has developed four different surveys: one for caregivers (parents/guardians), one for school professionals, one for students, and one for community members. All surveys can be accessed at the link below. To provide the most relevant feedback, please take the survey that best fits your role.
