CrimeMapping.com is an overview of designated crimes within a particular law enforcement agency. The icons are intended to indicate the block in which the crime allegedly occurred. Information shown is displayed for a maximum of 180 days and is updated once a day. Note that this is a representation of crime and is not all-inclusive.

The data represented is a snapshot of categorized incidents as recorded at the moment of data upload. The information may not always reflect changes to individual incidents/cases if the changes were made after data upload. The original data source is dynamic and is therefore constantly changing, so information may differ from day to day. Crimes are subject to change for a variety of reasons, including late reporting, and reclassification of some offenses.

Crimes may not appear on CrimeMapping.com until the crime report has been confirmed and entered by the law enforcement agency. Crimes responded to by an agency that does not subscribe to our website will not appear on CrimeMapping.com.

CrimeMapping.com is the host of crime data received from law enforcement agencies and is not responsible for the content in this site. Please contact the appropriate agency for detailed information regarding crime incidents.
